

CHEYNEY UNIVERSITY TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION RESOURCES

FOR STUDENTS IN A NUTSHELL

- Title IX Coordinator: Robin Coward, Executive Director of Institutional Effectiveness and Director of EEO & Title IX Coordinator, rcoward@cheyney.edu, 610-399-2430; report all incidents of sexual harassment and/or assault to the Title IX coordinator
- Confidential reports of sexual harassment and/or assault can be made to Professor Jolly Ramakrishnan, Director, Guidance and Counseling Center, jramakrishnan@cheyney.edu, 610-399-2032
- Cheyney Police Dept.: 610-399-2404 or call 911 for immediate assistance and to make a police report

Online Resources

- Title IX webpage with resources: cheyney.edu/president/title-ix
- Cheyney University Policy on Preventing and Addressing Sexual Harassment, Including Sexual Violence, SE-2010-6001
- Crime Incident Reporting Form
- Student Handbook
- Student Code of Conduct 2017-2019
- “Think About It” online course: Everfi (sexual violence, alcohol, drugs) and Sexual Violence Annual Course; see Resources section; mandatory for all students. Students will receive access to the course through their D2L account.

What to do if you have been sexually assaulted:

- Call the police if you are in immediate danger 610-399-2405 or 911
- Get to a safe place
- Call someone you trust
- Seek medical attention
- Preserve evidence: do not bathe/shower, eat/drink, smoke, brush your teeth or hair, urinate or wash your clothing (put your clothes in a paper—not plastic—bag)
- Report the assault promptly
- Talk with a counselor
- Take care of yourself

Safety tips

- Don't think it can't happen to you
- You have the right to set sexual limits in any situation
- Don't be afraid to be assertive
- Consider taking a self-defense course offered by Cheyney Police Department every semester
- Trust your instincts
- Stay sober

Remember: if you see something, say something!